

MARION LALOUE

Director, legal department of the Institut de Cancérologie de l'Ouest (ICO), Angers/Saint-Herblain, France.

Law degree (Paris, France).

Lawyer, Brussels Bar (1992-2000), specialized in medical liability law, Belgium.

Parliamentary Advisor in health law (2000-2003), Belgian Senate (Special Commission in charge of bioethical issues; participated in the drafting of the laws on end of life and embryo research).

Advisor to the Belgian Deputy Prime Minister (2003-2005).

Lawyer, Bar of Nantes (2003-2014), France

University Diploma (2013), «Dynamics of improvement of medical professional practices», University of Medicine, Nantes, France.

Member of ethical committee (Comité de Protection des Personnes-CPP) in biomedical research, Nantes, France

Founding member, clinical ethics consultation, Nantes University Hospital, France

Founding member, clinical ethics consultation, Institut de Cancérologie de l'Ouest, Angers/Saint-Herblain, France.

Lecturer on clinical ethics for several masters, University of Medicine, Nantes, France.

Marion Laloue has given more than 50 seminar presentations on medical law and clinical ethics. She was elected deputy for health of the city of Le Pouliguen, France in July 2020.